

TRANSPORT; CONNECTING PROJECTS (Tourism, Agriculture, Mining)

A multi-modal transportation network linking the rural and urban centres, and bridging the gap between the north and south, is crucial in directing the social and economic geography of the nation towards Transformation.

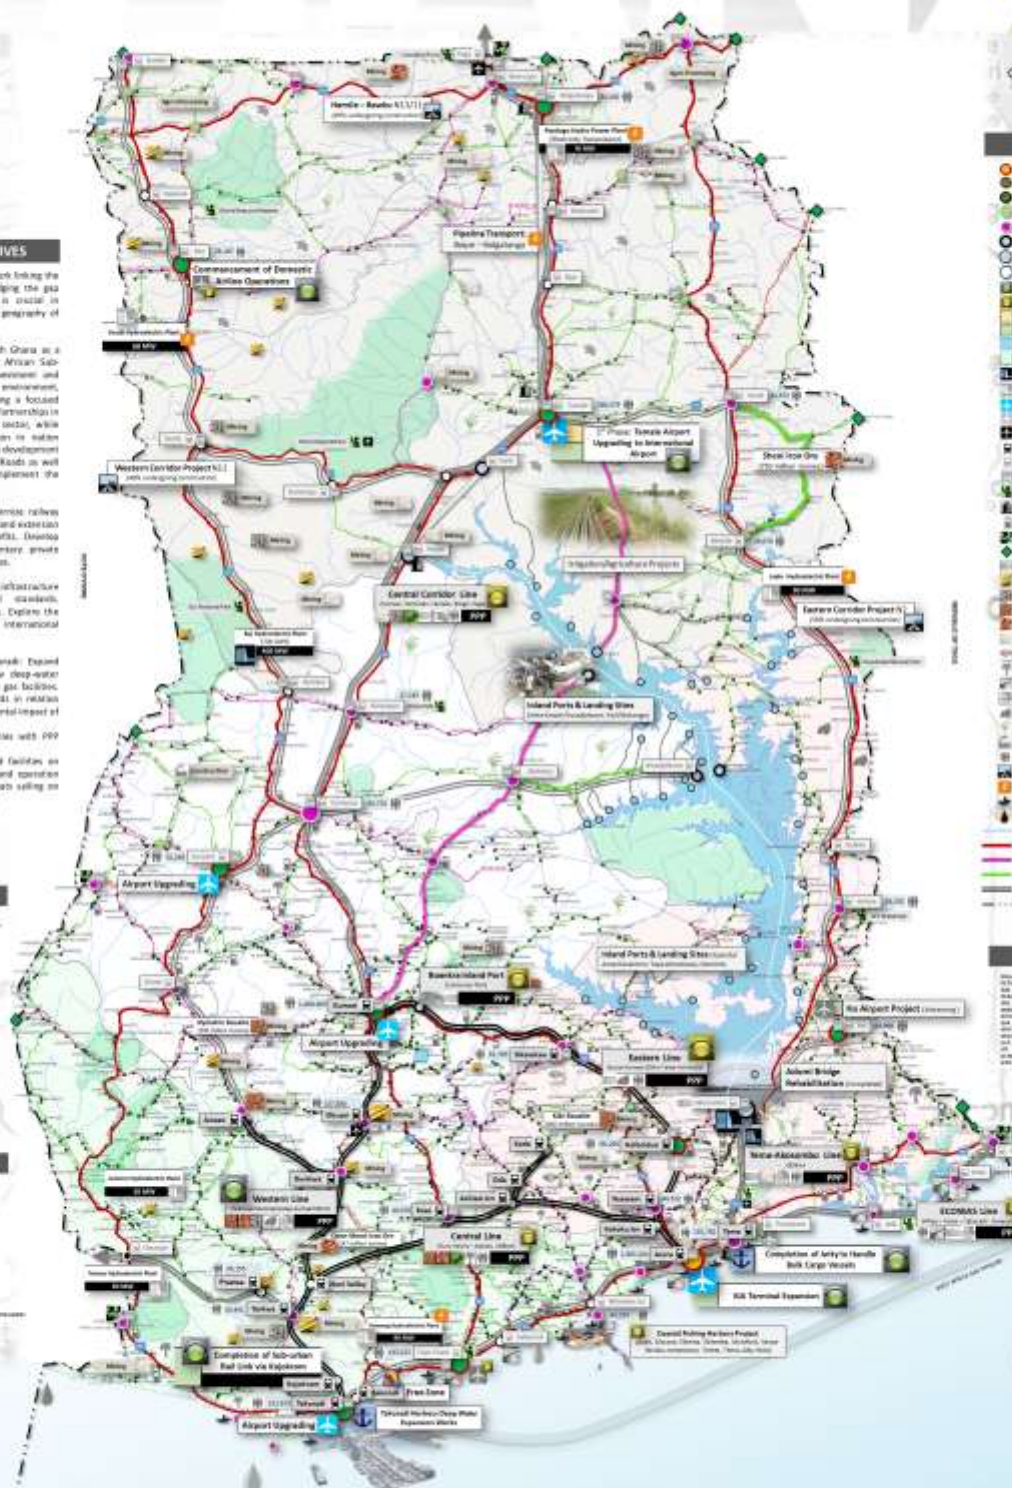

The sector's objective is to establish Ghana as a Transportation Hub for the West African Sub-Region, creating a sustainable investment and performance-based management environment, that meets user needs. Undertaking a focused investment drive for Public-Private-Partnerships in all components of the Transport sector, while ensuring local content participation in water building. Government continues the development of West, East and Central corridor Roads as well as strategic power plants to complement the Transport Network. Increased Rail Transport: Reviving and modernizing railways ought to link raw material sources, and extend use of rail markets for economic benefits. Reviving guidelines to regulate complementary private sector developments within rail zones.

Air Transport: Upgrade and expand infrastructure and facilities to international standards. Implement the open skies policies. Explore the feasibility of establishing other international airports in Ghana (ongoing).

Maritime and Inland Water: Takaish: Expand port infrastructure including new deep-water berths, new container and oil and gas facilities. Develop and enforce new standards in relation with security, safety and environmental impact of offshore activities (ongoing).
Tena: Develop multi-modal facilities with P99 management.
Improve Navigation conditions and facilities on Lake Lake. Advance construction and operation standards for WCC and private boats sailing on the Lake Lake.
Implementation of pollution treatment

- Antennule (1st antennal segment)
Antennule (1st segment) is the first segment of the antenna.
- Antenna (2nd antennal segment)
Antenna (2nd segment) is the second segment of the antenna.
- Antennule (3rd antennal segment)
Antennule (3rd segment) is the third segment of the antenna.
- Antennule (4th antennal segment)
Antennule (4th segment) is the fourth segment of the antenna.
- Antennule (5th antennal segment)
Antennule (5th segment) is the fifth segment of the antenna.

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

THE PUBLIC-PRIVATE PARTNERSHIP (PPP) PROCESS
STAGE 1	STAGE 2	STAGE 3	STAGE 4
IDENTIFICATION OF PROJECT	IDENTIFICATION OF PROJECT	FINANCIAL EVALUATION	CONTRACTING AND DELIVERY
PROJECT IDENTIFICATION	PROJECT SELECTION	FINANCIAL EVALUATION	CONTRACTING AND DELIVERY
IDENTIFICATION	SELECTION	FINANCIAL EVALUATION	CONTRACTING AND DELIVERY

ACCESS TO PONTS: Your tour includes most parts of Florence (cathedral and Giotto's tower by boat) (at other times) includes flight emergency seat. All participants will get prepared. 3.5 hour visit of Florence from every point. These participants include participants, group, traffic and environmental information. more details available on the website. www.visitflorence.com